1. All dispositive motions are heard no later than 120 days before trial, unless leave of court is obtained for another deadline.

2. Only one summary judgment motion may be filed by each side, absent leave of court. Leave of court may be sought if multiple parties comprise one or both sides. Leave of court may be obtained by filing a motion for administrative relief pursuant to Civ. L. R. 7-11, or by requesting a case management conference or informal telephone conference.

3. Separate statements of undisputed facts in support of or in opposition to motions for summary judgment shall NOT be filed. See Civil L. R. 56-2. The parties may file a truly joint statement of undisputed facts only if all parties agree that the facts are undisputed.

4. Each party filing or opposing a motion shall also serve and file a proposed order which sets forth the relief or action sought and a short statement of the rationale of decision, including citation of authority that the party requests the court to adopt. The failure of a party to file an opposition to any motion shall constitute a consent to the granting of the motion.

6. Motions pursuant to Daubert v. Irrespective of the hearing date, the briefs shall be filed in accordance with Civil L. R. 7-2 - 7-5, on a 35-day briefing schedule.

7. Briefing schedules for motions that are specifically set by the court may not be altered by stipulation; rather the parties must obtain leave of court.

8. Motions in limine are limited to motions to exclude specific items of evidence on a ground and upon such authority as would be sufficient to sustain an objection to such evidence at trial. The court will not generally consider a motion presenting a purely legal issue in the guise of a motion in limine.

9. Discovery motions will be referred to a Magistrate Judge for resolution. The words "Discovery Matter" shall appear in the caption of all documents relating to discovery to insure proper routing.

10. Confidential and/or sealed documents shall be handled in accordance with this court's standing order and Civil L.R. 79-5, both of which the parties shall consult before moving for a protective order or requesting a sealing order.

C. JURY TRIAL

Jury Selection shall proceed as follows: The Jury Commissioner will summon 20 to 25 prospective jurors. The Courtroom Deputy will select their names at random and seat them in the courtroom in the order in which their names are called. Voir dire will be conducted of sufficient venire members so that six to eight will remain after all peremptory challenges and an anticipated number of hardship dismissals and cause challenges have been made.

The court will then take cause challenges and discuss hardship claims at side bar. The court will inform counsel which hardship claims and cause challenges will be granted, but will not announce those dismissals until the selection process is completed. Peremptory challenges will be made in writing and passed between counsel. The court will strike at one time those with meritorious hardship claims, those excused for cause, and those challenged peremptorily, and then seat the first six to eight people remaining in numerical order.

The attached voir dire questionnaire shall be given to the venire members and copies of the responses will be made available to counsel at the beginning of voir dire. Counsel shall submit a joint set of additional voir dire questions to be posed by the court. Any voir dire questions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Counsel will be permitted brief follow-up voir dire after the court's questioning.

The following jury instructions from the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions Civil (2001 Edition) shall be given absent objection: 1.1 - 1.14, 2.1 - 2.2, 3.1 - 3.3, 3.5 - 3.7, 4.1 - 4.4. Counsel shall submit a joint set of case specific instructions using the Ninth Circuit Manual where appropriate. Do not submit duplicates of those instructions listed above. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Each instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with citations to the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A second blind copy of each instruction shall also be submitted omitting the citation to authority and the reference to the submitting party, but retaining the title of the instruction.

1 D. TRIAL SCHEDULE

2 The court's trial schedule is 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. with two fifteen-minute breaks, on 3 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

4 E. PROCEDURE FOR AMENDING THIS ORDER

5 No provision of this order may be changed except by written order of this court upon its own
6 motion or upon motion of one or more parties made pursuant to Civil. L. R. 7-11 with a showing
7 of good cause. Parties may file a formal brief, but a letter brief will suffice. The requesting party
8 shall serve the opposing party on the same day the motion is filed and the opposing party shall 9 submit a response as soon as possible but no later than three days after service.

10 If the modification sought is an extension of a deadline contained herein, the motion must
11 be brought before expiration of that deadline. The parties may not modify the pretrial
12 schedule by stipulation. A conflict with a court date set after the date of this order does not
13 constitute good cause. The parties are advised that if they stipulate to a change in the discovery
14 schedule, they do so at their own risk. The only discovery schedule that the court will enforce is the 15 one set in this order.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED.
